

Working together, across borders

Investing in the future of the Euregio

Save the Date

The next period of Interreg is around the corner: 2021-2027. New opportunities will open for initiatives that contribute to competitive and sustainable regions in Europe. Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine will support projects that are ambitious, innovative and above all: cross-border.

On 24 October 2019, Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine will look ahead to the 2021-2027 period. You are invited to share your views. What are the interests and challenges in your sector? How can we make EU funding more accessible to your organisation? Your opinion helps Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine shape a successful programme.

Target groups

If your organisation has the ambition to cooperate with partners across borders, then we hope to get in touch with you on 24 October. We invite sectoral associations, local and regional authorities, SMEs, NGOs, research institutes, etc. In case you already engaged in an Interreg project, we are eager to hear about your experiences. Do you not have experience with Interreg or EU funding yet? In that case we are particularly interested in hearing your opinion.

Projects

Some of Interreg's current projects will highlight their achievements. They will present some of the innovation and development that Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine has made possible.

What is Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine?

Interreg Euregio Meuse-Rhine is a European funding programme that supports cross-border cooperation. It supports projects with means from the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) and co-financing from its partner regions. Interreg exists since 1989 and is currently in its 5th period (2014-2020). The 6th period will run from 2021-2027.
